Frequently asked questions about MA program

1. Question:
In what language are the studies conducted?

Answer:
Lectures are given in English.

2. Question:
What is the tuition fee?

Answer:
Study fee per year: 5540 EUR (for citizens of Latvia)
Study fee per year: 6920 EUR (for citizens of EU, EEA, CIS countries, Georgia, Ukraine and other countries)
An additional 15% discount is given to graduates of the RISEBA University Bachelor's study program ARCHITECTURE for the first year of study.

3. Question:
What times do studies in the MA program in architecture take place?

Answer:
The lecture times are: Thursday, Fridays from 18.00-21.30 and on Saturdays 10.00-15.00

4. Question:
Is it possible to combine studies with work while studying the Master's program of architecture at RISEBA University?

Answer:
Yes that is possible. Lectures are held Thursday, Friday evenings and on Saturdays.

5. Question:
Do I have a tuition fee discount for master's studies in architecture at RISEBA University if I have obtained a bachelor's degree in architecture at the same university?

Answer:
Yes, students who have obtained a Bachelor's degree in architecture at RISEBA University have a 15% discount on the tuition fee for the first year of study

6. Question:
Is it possible to study for free in the master's program of architecture at RISEBA University?

Answer:
No, it is not possible to study for free in the Master's program in architecture at RISEBA University, but we can offer many discount options. Check them here:
https://www.riseba.lv/en/students/riseba-discounts

7. Question:
Can I apply for an architect's license after studying landscape architecture and urban planning in the MA architecture program?

Answer:
Yes, after completing your studies in landscape architecture and urbanism track in the MA architecture program, you can apply for an architect's license.
in the direction of landscape architecture and urban planning, lectures are closer to related topics, but they architectural studies in its core.